 de Lesia Kordonets

durée du film : 92 min.

Un échange avec la résistante ucrainienne, sa mère, sa grand-mère, sa sœur, sa mère...

En 2014, les Jeux paralympiques d'hiver se déroulent en parallèle de l'annexion de la Crimée à la Russie. En suivant cinq athlètes ukrainiens soucieux d'adapter leurs vies personnelles et professionnelles au conflit armé qui persiste, Pushing Boundaries porte une pertinente réflexion sur les capacités de l'humain à repousser la frontière entre deux pays, et celles de son propre corps.

Une partie du prix de la place est destiné au financement du Prix Zonta de soutien à la création (CHF 5'000.-) qui sera décerné lors du Festival 2023 du Festival à une réalisatrice dont l'œuvre révèle une maîtrise et un talent qui appellent un soutien pour des créations futures.

Results and best practices Area04

- Strong collaboration amongst the club especially within the same region
- Good support from experienced clubs towards new clubs
- Through the reflexions made during the Area04 encounters, various clubs introduced new approaches to motivate or recruit
- Very good and friendly «Zonta spirit» during our meetings
- Clubs prefer to concentrate their efforts on few actions rather than start new programs (due to the small effective of our clubs)
